ABOUT MYSELF

I am a passionate and detail-oriented Frontend Web Developer with solid experience in building responsive, accessible, and visually appealing websites using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I have a strong understanding of web standards, cross-browser compatibility, and modern design practices. My skill set also includes working with databases and SQL, allowing me to effectively integrate and manage backend data with front-end interfaces.

I thrive in collaborative environments and enjoy transforming creative concepts into interactive, functional digital experiences. With a strong problem-solving mindset and a continuous drive to learn new technologies, I aim to deliver clean, efficient, and scalable code. Whether working independently or as part of a team, I am committed to developing solutions that are both user-focused and technically robust.

CREATIVE WORKS

Frontend Projects & UI Design

A collection of creative and technically sound web development projects focused on delivering responsive, user-friendly, and visually engaging interfaces. These projects demonstrate my ability to turn design concepts into fully functional web experiences using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and SQL for backend data handling. Each project reflects attention to detail, mobile-first design principles, and modern frontend development techniques. Through these builds, I've practiced integrating APIs, optimizing performance, and ensuring cross-browser compatibility while maintaining clean and maintainable code.
